Madrid, Jan. 31. On the 20th Inſtant, being the Birth-Day of the King of the Two Sicilies, there was a brilliant Appearance at Court; and their Catholick Majeſties received the uſual Compliments on that Occaſion. The ſame Day arrived here a Courier diſpatched from Verſailles by M. Maſones, his Catholick Majeſty's Ambaſſador at the Court of France, with the News of the French King's perfect Recovery of the Wound he had received from an Aſſaſſin on the 5th of this Month. The laſt Letters from Cadiz mention, that on the 23d Inſtant, the Antigallican Privateer, commanded by Captain Forreſt, brought into that Bay a large French Ship from China, of about 1000 Tons Burthen, ſuppoſed to be very rich, though her Value was not exactly known, becauſe the French Captain had thrown all his Letters and Papers over Board, when he found himſelf forced to ſtrike, after a very ſmart and obſtinate Engagement of two Hours and a half. This Ship was deſigned by the Captain of the Privateer to be carried into Lisbon, but the extream Badneſs of the Weather had forced him to bear away for Cadiz, and to bring her into that Port. It is adviſed from Ferrol, that his Britannick Majeſty's Ship the Dunkirk, commanded by Captain How, having received ſome Damage at Sea, was come into that Harbour for Repair; and that the Spaniſh Officers there, had given the Captain all the Aſſiſtance, and ſhewn him all the Attention, due to the Colours of the Britiſh Crown.

Bruſſels, Feb. 11. The Letters from France bring us no farther Particulars, relating to the Change in the French Miniſtry, which does not ſeem yet to be quite ſettled. A Placart was publiſhed here the Day before Yeſterday, by which the Empreſs Queen orders all her Subjects of the Auſtrian Netherlands, who are in the King of Pruſſia's Dominions, or employed at his Court, or in his Armies, to quit his Pruſſian Majeſty's Service within two Months; threatning with her Indignation, and the Confiſcation of their Eſtates, all thoſe who ſhall not comply with this Order. A few Days ago was publiſhed, in the ſeveral Towns of the Auſtrian Netherlands, the Convention that was ſigned at Vienna

[Price Two-Pence.]

Vienna between the Imperial and French Courts, on the 16th of December, for the mutual Delivery of Deſerters, to commence from the 1ſt of the preſent Month.

Bruſſels, Feb. 15. A Courier paſt through here Yeſterday in his Way to Princeſs Charlotte of Lorrain at Mons, with the News that his Royal Highneſs Prince Charles arrived at Vienna, on the 7th Inſtant, in good Health. The laſt Letters from France inform us, that M. Peyrenc de Moras, Comptroller General of the Finances, is appointed Miniſtre de la Marine; and that M. de Rouillé continues to act as Secretary of State, though he has deſired to be diſmiſſed from that Employment, which, it is ſtill ſaid, will be given to the Abbé de Bernis.
